UMPIRING CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Introduction

Everyone involved at all levels of pétanque has a responsibility to promote and uphold the highest standards of behaviour in our sport.

The content of this Umpiring Code of Conduct is an extension of, and should be used in conjunction with, our Member's Code of Conduct and applies to all Welsh Pétanque Association (WPA) Coaches.

The implementation of this Policy within the WPA, is the responsibility of the Director of Development.

4. Professional Behaviour

All WPA Umpires will Promote the reputation of the sport of pétanque and take all possible steps to prevent it from being brought into disrepute

- Be a positive role model for pétanque by acting in a way that projects a positive image within pétanque and being fair, considerate and honest with participants and officials
- Always display the highest standards of health, language, manner, appearance, punctuality, preparation and presentation
- Act in a decisive, objective but friendly manner in your interaction with other officials, players, coaches and spectators and carry out your duties in an efficient and nonabrasive manner.
- Cooperate fully with officials and representatives

Appropriate supervision ratios and systems for monitoring the whereabouts of children are essential. It must be clear at all times, who in the team is responsible for supervision. This is particularly important where events are held on large sites and at residential venues.
